This Trotter Hangs Up Great Record

Ina Jay, Harvey Ernest Driving.

Ina Jay, sturdy little trotter from the village of West Park, Ohio ranks as one of the queens of the light harness game because of her performance in the past four seasons.

In the four campaigns she entered in 20 events. She captured 21, finished second in nine, third in two and was unplaced in four. Records better than this do not crowd the year books to date.

In 1915, her first big season, Ina Jay started in 10 events, and won all of them. She raced in just 32 heats to win the 10.

Furthermore nine of these victories were won in straight heats. In only one, at Tiffin, Ohio, did Ina Jay have to battle for first money. She fought it out in five heats with Celia Dillon and trotted in 2:11 1/4 to win the event. Her racing was confined to Ohio and Virginia tracks that season.

What might have been a bigger season the next summer was spoiled when the trotter went lame in the Charter Oak purse event at Hartford and had to lay off the rest of the season. Her only victories were won at Jackson, Mich., and Rockport, Ohio. Danville defeated her at Cranston.

Since that season Ina Jay's activities have been confined to the Grand circuit.

In 1917 she won the 32nd renewal of the Charter Oak purse at Hartford, won at Syracuse and Columbus and wrote the final chapter in that season's work by clipping the famous Transylvania stake at Lexington. The race went seven hours—the fastest seven record.

Last year Ina Jay honored her record to 2:04 1/4 at Toledo. She again hung up victories at Syracuse, Hartford and Philadelphia.

To Harvey Ernest's all-around skill must go the credit for the queen's work. He showed great skill in her training and handling of the star. Her schedule was so arranged that her important races were close together and came at a time when she was at her best.

Her perfect manner has drawn the admiration of the millions. She was perfect in her deportment before she ever appeared in a race.

Her breeding is interesting to those who delve deep into this angle of the game. Hambletonian and Gray strains are noted in her pedigree.

She undoubtedly will stay down the dog show this season and her work will be watched.

Sixty-Sixth Birthday of Paddy
Ryan, Great Tipperary Fighter

Paddy Ryan, popular prizefighter, was again knocked out by Sullivan in San Francisco, and soon afterward he retired from the ring.

One of the new gasoline from Texas is designated as a little more than the work of a single horse.

He was practically an unknown when he was matched to fight Joe Goetz for the American championship in 1915. The bout was fought off at Eddie Flanagan's gym and was for 10 rounds and the title. Joe Goetz and Paddy Ryan fought this fight. The bout was won by Ryan and a half the two and some pointed out other mistakes made by Goetz, but in the 10th round Ryan went down and was unable to get up again in time.
